The Savannah, built in New York and owned in Savannah, Ga. and commanded by Captain Moses Rogers. She left Savannah May 25, 1815, and arrived at Liverpool after a voyage of twenty-two days. It is said that when she was sighted she was supposed to be aftre and that aid was sent out to her. Many thousands crowded to see her come in, and she remained for about four weeks at Liverpool, where she was the centre of attraction. She
